ing Deeds for Transfer of Property Are Illegal.

34 DEFENDANTS ARE NAMED

Ira Cornelius, J. S. Cosden,
E. W. Sinclair and Others
Included in Case.

SAPULPA, July 2.—A suit for $10,000,000, which is said to be the largest suit ever filed in Creek county, was filed today by Fannie Fulsom, Mollie Tiger and Baby Cumsey against Ira D. Cornelius and 34 other persons and corporations. The plaintiffs ask for possession of 260 acres of land, clear title, and profit from the land since 1911. Among the defendants named are J. S. Cosden, E. W. Sinclair, Ohio Cities Gas company and Charles W. Grimes.

The suit, which was filed by Lewis C. Lawson, an attorney of Holden, Okla., is based on alleged fraud and misrepresentation in securing land. The petition, 56 pages in length, gives a long recital of the plaintiffs. One of the plaintiffs, Fannie Fulsom, is a full blood Creek Indian, and can neither read nor write the Creek or English language. The land involved in the case is the southwest quarter of section 4, township 18 north, range 7 east, and the southeast quarter of the west half of the southeast quarter of section 4, the same range and township.

The defendants named are as follows: Ira D. Cornelius, Charles W. Grimes, J. H. Cacy, John Z. Cacy, O. M. Lancaster, W. Confield, Samuel Waller, Morris E. Peet, Thomas Morgan, D. A. McDougal, L. O. Lytle, W. V. Pryor, C. H. Hockwood, J. S. Cosden, E. W. Sinclair, Corden Oil company, Clara J. Ryan, G. M. Cantberry, Ralph Hochstetter, Southwestern Petroleum company, Lolly Jack, Joseph Bruner, Susanna Brink, Claude Taylor, B. Perry, H. B. Butler, A. H. Hamner, Ohio Cities Gas company, Inland Refining company, Corden Pipe Line company.

The petition claims that an agreement, which contained 160 acres, was made to Sussie Crow in 1905, and a surplus allotment, containing 120 acres, was made the next year. The petition states further that Sussie Crow died in September 1909. Fannie Fulsom's husband, Nokoletche, who was the father of Sussie Crow, Mollie Tiger and Baby Cumsey, died in 1909. Fannie Fulsom married George Fulsom.

The petition declares that Fannie Fulsom, Mollie Tiger and Baby Cumsey inherited the land in three equal parts. In 1909 the first alleged fraudulent sale occurred, when J. H. Cacy went to Fannie Fulsom and induced her to make deed to her land under the impression that she was the sole heir of the land. The deed was for $1,000 at that time. The petition claims that the deed to this is null and void, because it was never placed on record and never approved by the county court. A deed that was filed in the Creek county courthouse on June 30, 1911, is declared null and void by the plaintiffs because the party making it was incompetent, and Fannie Fulsom's mark was not seen by any witnesses.

Other claims state that the land was not properly described when a deed was made by John H. Cacy and his wife, Lulu, on March 25, 1912, to his brother, John Z. Cacy. A part of this land was deeded to George W. Confield on the same day by John Z. Cacy. He also gave a quit claim to Mollie Tiger and Baby Cumsey, which is declared to be null and void, because Cacy represented to them that they had no right or interest in the land.

Do All He Can to Aid Nominee

NEW YORK, July 2.—A half hour conference today between Major General Leonard Wood and Will H. Hays, republican national chairman, caused a flurry of excitement in the offices of the party's national headquarters when a report filtered through the closed doors of Mr. Hays' office that more than passive support of the Harding campaign had been offered by the general.

"General Wood will do everything consistent with his position as an army officer to further Senator Harding's election," one of the executives of the campaign announced while the interview still was in progress.

The report that the general had enlisted wholeheartedly in the Harding cause was strengthened when it was learned that he was planning to call on Senator Harding at the latter's home in Marion, Ohio, soon.

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 2.—William J. Creekmore was pardoned by R. L. Davidson, acting governor, late this afternoon, of the sentence of one year in jail and fine of $500 imposed by the county court of Oklahoma county for conspiracy to violate the state prohibition law.

Creekmore was discharged from the federal penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., last September, after serving approximately two years. He was convicted in federal court of bribery of federal officers and pleaded guilty to other charges of introducing liquor into Indian territory and bribery of jurors. His sentences in the federal prison were allowed to run concurrently. A petition for a pardon presented to the president of the United States by Creekmore while he was in the federal prison was checked by protest of Attorney General Freeing and was expedited to leave the state last night. Tom C. Waldrep of Shawnee, speaker of the house of representatives, came to Oklahoma City this afternoon to become acting governor tomorrow if Senator Davidson carries out his plan to leave the state.

Creekmore was in the city tonight. "I do not know if I have been pardoned or not," he said. "I got here about 6 o'clock and expect to go on to Chickasha Saturday morning. My attorney is out of the city and I have not heard if the governor signed the pardon."

Senator Davidson at his home last night confirmed the above dispatch that he had granted the pardon. In explanation of his action, Mr. Davidson said that in view of the fact that Creekmore had served four years, paid his fine and expressed a willingness to quit the game and live a straight life, he felt justified in giving him a chance. Creekmore's health failed him while he was in the penitentiary and Mr. Davidson said that he was moved by this fact also. If he had served his time in the county jail his life would probably have been shortened many years, he said.

Creekmore pled his trade in Tulsa county and vicinity for several years before he was apprehended. With the pardon granted him yesterday he is now a free man. "I am going on my ranch and live a straight life," he said.

Senator Davidson is acting as governor while Governor J. B. A. Robertson is out of the state and during the absence also of Lieut.-Gov. M. E. Trapp.

Frisco Flashes

Two ballots were taken for president at the democratic convention with McAdoo, Palmer and Cox, the big three, in that order. Each gained on the second ballot, but none was within striking distance of a majority, to say nothing of the two-thirds needed to nominate.

The Wilson platform was adopted with change. Bryan's dry plank was rolled over after a great demonstration had been given Bryan when he carried the fight to the floor. All four other amendments offered by him were defeated.

The Irish amendment went down to defeat. The light beer and wine amendment also was defeated.

The convention adjourned until 9:30 a. m. today. This is 11:30 Tulsa time. Meanwhile leaders were negotiating trying to agree upon a candidate to put against McAdoo.

DEBATE FOR 8 HOURS

Many Thrilling Events Feature Submission of Minority Platform Planks.

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—William J. Bryan with one of his old time speeches in support of a dry plank for the democratic platform, turned the convention almost upside down late this afternoon with the magnanimity and force of his oratory and started one of the greatest and noisiest demonstrations that the assembly yet had seen but he was noted down on the roll call at much personal tribute.

When Bryan had concluded his reply to the advocates of a wet plank the demonstration cut loose on the floor, and wholly unaided by the band or the organ, or any of the other instrumentalities which had been effectively used to keep other demonstrators going, it proceeded to a debate in which both sides stirred delegates and spectators to repeated bursts of emotional enthusiasm.

Bryan, standing smiling in the limelight at the edge of the speaker's platform and with tears of emotion coursing down his cheeks, reviewed a procession of prohibition enthusiasts who tore up state standards and started a moving column of delegates about the hall. There was one more fight over whether a state standard should go in the demonstration, a particularly spectacular one, as Bryan carried the column of delegates around the platform, where, when Mrs. Georgia C. Ormsby of Oakland, attempted to carry the standard into the demonstration a number of men attempted to prevent it.

Among them was an assistant sergeant at arms, Francis J. Henry, pounced on the man and threw him into the crowd. All that remained of the standard when the wreckage was cleared away was a tattered part of pasteboard top which once had borne the letters of the state's name. Alabama standard suffered a similar fate and the big were triumphantly borne about the hall by the prohibition forces.

At 6 o'clock tonight after eight solid hours of demonstration, oratory and debate, the convention came to the point of voting on the changes proposed in the platform by William J. Bryan and others. There were 11 sub-planks pending and offered for inclusion in the platform. All were subsequently defeated.

Battle Waged Upon Floor

Sympathy for Cause.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The democratic platform as framed in the resolutions committee declaring for the peace treaty expressing sympathy for Ireland and saying nothing at all about prohibition, came unscathed through a furious floor fight today and was adopted without amendment in a great avalanche of applause.

W. J. Bryan led the fight for adoption of his bone dry plank but it was buried after a dramatic day of debate by a majority so overwhelming that he did not even ask for roll calls on the four other minority reports which he had prepared.

A cigar, wine and beer plank championed in an emotional speech by W. Bourke Cochran of New York also was thrown out by the convention along with a plank for recognition of the Irish republic backed by several organizations of Irish sympathizers.

In the battle for the platform as framed the administration forces were repulsed by Secretary Colby and Senator James of Virginia, during a debate in which both sides stirred delegates and spectators to repeated bursts of emotional enthusiasm.

With the platform adopted, the convention was up with the resolution on presidential candidates began. As state after state announced a majority against the dry plank there was cheering and an announcement of the result of the ballot was the signal for a renewed solicitation by all of those who had hoped to see the Nebraska turned down by the convention.

The Bryan prohibition plank rejected by the convention was as follows:

"We heartily congratulate the democratic party on its splendid leadership in the submission and ratification of the prohibition amendment to the federal constitution and we pledge our party to the strictest enforcement of the present enforcement law, honestly and in good faith without any increase in the alcoholic content of permitted beverages and without any weakening of any other of its provisions."

The official result was 155 1-2 votes, 229 1-2 votes that finished Bryan's bone dry plank and the convention turned to the next amendment to the platform which was the plank offered by Representative Hobson of Alabama.

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—Two ballots on candidates were taken tonight by the democratic national convention and with McAdoo, Palmer and Cox remaining at the head of the list in the order named but all a long way from the nomination, recess was taken until tomorrow.

The McAdoo people, claiming that they were certain to put the candidate over on the fourth ballot, opposed the adjournment which was taken on motion of former Representative Fitzgerald of New York. When it was put for a vote there was loud cheers on each side of the question and Chairman Robinson declared the bone dry plank which some of the McAdoo supporters were clamoring for a roll call on it. The three leading candidates all gained on the second ballot at the expense of the big field of favorites, a score of whom received some support.
